Interfraternity Council

The Purpose of the IFC

1. To cultivate and maintain the high ideals of each individual member chapter as well as the educational mission of Rutgers University;
2. To further cooperation among the recognized fraternal organizations of Rutgers University
3. To establish cooperation and mutual understanding between the Greek community and the student body, faculty, and administration
4. To engage in philanthropic activities, which serve the community and university;
5. To participate in the process of educating members of the Greek community with respect to those standards set for the fraternities of Rutgers University.

Fraternity Recruitment

Men interested in becoming a member of an IFC fraternity must participate in IFC recruitment, commonly referred to as "rush". Upper class and Transfer students may become members at any time; freshmen men may not join until the start of their second semester. All students must meet the minimum eligibility requirements before being accepted for membership. Eligibility to join a fraternity is based upon ALL of the following:

- ▶ Completion of at least twelve (12) credits at Rutgers University (including E credits);
- ▶ A 2.0 GPA from the previous semester;
- ▶ A minimum cumulative GPA of 2.25
- ▶ Currently enrolled as a full-time Rutgers University student.
