Student Services Initiative

The university is committed to improving service to students and making it easier to enjoy the full and intellectually rich experiences that living and learning at Rutgers can provide.

Guided by input received at retreats with student leaders, the administration has implemented many changes, including expanded hours in student services offices, one-stop student services hubs on each campus at the start of each semester, and the creation of web portals for quick online access to services.

Check back here regularly for updates and information on this ongoing initiative.
