

Erena Rae Bias Prevention Artistic Contest

Prizes:

One winner from each campus will be selected

$500 for each 1st place winner

$250 for each 2nd place winner

The Committee to Advance our Common Purposes and the New Brunswick-Piscataway Campus-wide Bias Prevention Poster Contest will expand upon the very successful “ Help Stop the Hate” Poster Competition initiated at Rutgers College in 1991. By encouraging students to be creative in addressing racial, gender, religious, sexual, prejudice, and bigotry, this year’s campus-wide contest seeks to engage the whole community in bias prevention and multicultural awareness. The posters should emphasize strong anti-bias/multicultural stance.

March 9 : Deadline to submit entries to Social Justice Office

March 21: Awards will be Announced

April 18: Rutgers University Human Dignity Awards

Categories:

Media: Includes Film

Written Word: Journals, Poetry, and Creative Prose

Visual: Photography, Artwork, and Posters

Criteria for Entry:

Artwork must be standards poster sizes: “8.5x11”, “8.5x14”, “11x17”

All work must thematically represent and focus on “ Bias Prevention through Multicultural Awareness

This contest is open to all full-time and part-time undergraduates of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey(New Brunswick, Camden, and Newark)

For more Information contact:

Committee to Advance our Common Purposes

3 Barlett Street

New Brunswick, NJ 08901

(732)932-1711

<http://www.rci.rutgers.edu/~divcoaff/>