

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey.

I invite you to explore the many programs we proudly offer at campuses in Camden, Newark, and New Brunswick. With 27 degree-granting units and thousands of courses, Rutgers has something for everyone. If you are a prospective student, please be sure to visit admissions for all the information you will need to get started.

Rutgers, the eighth oldest college in the nation, is an outstanding place to learn about social, economic, and political challenges, as well as scientific advances, historic milestones, and cultural trends. We support our academic tradition with superb research facilities, a top-ranked library system, and a sophisticated computer network.

Thank you for your interest in Rutgers. If you have any comments or suggestions, please send me an email. I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

President
