The Institute for Women's Leadership is a consortium of teaching, research, and public service units at Douglass College, the women's college of Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey. The institute and its members are dedicated to examining leadership issues and advancing women's leadership in all arenas of public life — locally, nationally, and globally.

SPOTLIGHT ON:

Susan B. Anthony's Legacy at the Centennial of Her Death

To mark the centennial of the death of the most famous American woman of the nineteenth century, the Institute for Women's Leadership and the Papers of Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Susan B. Anthony, Rutgers-New Brunswick, are sponsoring a series of events examining just how far American women have followed Anthony's directive: "We women must be up and doing. I can hardly sit still when I think of the great work waiting to be done."
